

408 LETTER TO ROBERT ROSS

Also cut out the letter² and enclose It In an envelope to:

Ms. ARTHUR CRUTEENDEN, Poste Restante, G.P.O., Reading,

with just these lines:

"Dear friend,

"The enclosed will interest you. There is also another letter waiting in the post office for you from me with a little money.

Ask for It if you have not got it.

"Yours sincerely,
O,3.3."

I have no one but you, dear Robbie, to do anything. Of course the letter to Reading must go at once, as my friends
come out on Wednesday morning early.

¹ His letter to the Daily Chronicle about Warder Martin and the little children.
